SUPERIOR SOCCER

We are absolutely certain that this is unquestionably the best soccer game that has ever been produced for the BBC Micro & Electron. SUPERIOR SOCCER is a software-masterpiece which includes the best features of arcade soccer games, & the best features of football management games. You can choose to play as an arcade game, a football management game, or as a game involving both of these disciplines. So you can effectively choose to be a player, a manager, or player-manager.

BALLISTIX

Many of you will know that the Atari ST & Commodore Amiga versions of Ballistix reached Number 1 in the software charts. Once again, Superior Software has managed to produce a superb conversion of a 16-bit game for the BBC Micro & Electron. The objective of the game is simple - you have to score more goals than your opponent (human or computer). However, there are many game objects - such as Splitters, Magnets, Holes, & Tunnels - which may help or hinder you as you attempt to force the ball into the opposing goal. It is a strategic as well as an arcade-style game.

Archimedes

GIANT KILLER

A Mathematical adventure game

Based loosely (& somewhat tongue-in-cheek!) on the tale of Jack & the Beanstalk. Although aimed at the 10-14 yr age group, many older children & plenty of adults, have already found the game charming, the puzzles challenging, & successful completion a rewarding & satisfying experience.

All the puzzles in this game are solidly based on mathematical activities .. calculator work, simple spatial investigations, co-ordinates, & so on. As the player progresses the puzzles gradually become more complex & demanding: tessellations, topology, sequences, & most important of all - mapwork, in addition to intriguing time/space puzzles, in which you really do have to be in the right place at the right time.

AVON

This is a new game from Topoligka, and is a Shakespearean adventure game. The language & scenes are in-keeping with the works of Shakespeare; the objective is to return to the present day by solving the problems posed.

WORD UP WORD DOWN

This is a kind of three-dimensional scrabble game in which you make words by placing letters on a board but can overlay new letters on top of old ones up to a certain limit. The board may be viewed either from above or with a 3D perspective from one side & the game design permits considerable scope for strategy.

- "The game has a fairly large dictionary & is capable of playing a moderately good game on its highest level".
(A&B COMPUTING)

STAR TRADER

This is a sci-fi space trader game reminiscent of Elite, except that the trading aspect of the game is much more fully developed & better presented.

AUTOSKETCH

Autosketch is the precision drawing tool, & using this product you can get your feet wet in CAD without drowning in a sea of commands & options. You can create clean, precise drawings, revise drawings without having to redraw them from scratch, have commonly used forms & shapes duplicated automatically & make instant copies of base drawings & completed drawings.

This art package really exploits the 256 colour capabilities of the Archimedes. In addition to the standard line or circle type functions, advanced features allow anti-alias squashing, rotation of areas into any quadrangle, spritz & brush patterning & allowing brushes to only affect specified colours. Further features allow television style techniques to even wrap a picture around a wine glass. An image may also be mapped on to any definable 3D surface & sequences of these may be animated to produce amazing effects. A smoothing brush & other useful digitised picture tools are available to make this one of the most sophisticated art packages available.
